Pānui 3 - Wāhanga 4

Tēnā koutou katoa e te whānau,

We hope that whānau enjoyed a lovely long weekend break and are ready for the last 6 weeks of term. A friendly reminder that this term will end on Friday 11th December 2020.

We will continue to do our very best in keeping whānau up to date with all relevant dates and information through our weekly Kura Pānui.

IN TODAY'S PĀNUI

1. Key Dates for Term 4, 2020
2. After Kura Pick Up
3. Documentation for Transport Allowance
4. Sports Information
5. Swimming Programme Consent Form

All whānau are welcomed and encouraged to attend our Annual Tuku Taonga ceremony.

Tuesday 17th November 2020 – 3.30pm – Whānau Whakahaere Hui

If you are unable to attend the whānau hui, please submit your apologies to the Tari by 3.00pm on the day of the hui.

Friday 20th November 2020 – Haerenga ki Te Whare Kararehe (Zoo)

Please find enclosed a copy of the pānui for this haerenga.

2. AFTER KURA PICK UP

To reduce congestion in the car park and allow traffic to flow smoothly, we will return to the same afternoon pick up procedure that was in place during Alert Level 2.

Whānau are kindly asked to remain in your vehicles, a kaiako will be on duty in the car park and will release your tamariki to you when you arrive. This will be in effect from tomorrow afternoon until the end of the term.

3. DOCUMENTATION FOR TRANSPORT ALLOWANCE

A friendly reminder that all of these documents are to be handed into the Tari by Week 6 (20.11.2020) of this term to allow admin staff time to initiate this process.

Documents needed are;

1. Verified bank statement for your nominated bank account - name and account number only please
2. Most recent proof of address - any form of documentation with your name and current address.
